ADULT LEARNING CENTRES

Adult learning centres (ALCs) are registered annually under The Adult Learning Centres Act to provide tuition-free high school credit and upgrading programs using recognized principles of adult education. ALCs offer a variety of high school credit courses that enable adult learners (19 years and older) to

- complete a high school diploma,
- obtain the necessary pre-requisite credits to qualify for post-secondary and/or further training opportunities
- become more competitive for new employment opportunities.

In addition, ALCs may provide the following courses or services:

DUAL CREDIT COURSES

Courses for which credit may be received at both the high school and post-secondary levels.

RECOGNIZING PRIOR LEARNING (RPL) / PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT AND RECOGNITION (PLAR)

RPL is the identification and recognition of skills and knowledge that an individual has achieved. RPL can include work experience (paid and unpaid), volunteer work, school credits, military experience, travel, hobbies, independent study, and family and life experiences.

NON-CREDIT (NC) ACADEMIC COURSES

Academic courses that do not count for credits towards the Mature Student High School Diploma. For example: literacy upgrading or adult basic education courses.

NON-CREDIT (NC) VOCATIONAL COURSES

Customized or "fee for service courses linked to business/industry or for general interest purposes such as resume writing, interview or career exploration courses.

ADULT LITERACY PROGRAMS

Adult literacy programs (ALPs) are funded under the Manitoba Adult Literacy Program to provide tuition-free programming for adults to improve their literacy skills. ALPs offer beginning to advanced programming in reading, document use, writing, communication and numeracy skills for adults to meet employment, education, training, and/or personal literacy-related goals.

Participants in adult literacy programs should be 18 years of age and older and out of school at least one year.

ALPs that are funded wholly or in part by the Manitoba Adult Literacy Program must meet the requirements of The Adult Literacy Act and the Adult Literacy Regulation, the criteria for funding and the policy and procedures established by Advanced Education and Literacy.

The following services may be offered by an adult literacy program:

CERTIFICATE IN LITERACY AND LEARNING (STAGES 1-3)
A learner-focused, portfolio-based curriculum framework that guides instruction for adults to upgrade and demonstrate their literacy competencies. Each STAGE level is organized into four sections: reading text, document use, writing, and oral communication.

Learners may receive a stage level Certificate in Literacy and Learning from the Department. Learners who have completed STAGE 3 may obtain up to 2 credits toward the Mature Student High School Diploma.

FAMILY LITERACY
Family literacy refers to ways the family as a whole uses literacy skills to perform tasks within the home and community. At ALPs, family literacy programming is intended to support the literacy development of adults in the family as well as assist adult caregivers to support their children's literacy needs.

ONE-TO-ONE TUTORING
Programming that matches a learner and a volunteer for one-to-one instruction.

GENERAL EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT (GED) TESTING SERVICE

The General Educational Development (GED) test is an international high school equivalency certificate. GED testing is available in English and French and consists of a series of five tests in the following areas:

- Language Arts, Reading
- Language Arts, Writing
- Mathematics
- Social Studies
- Science

The tests measure the skills used to understand and apply information; evaluate, analyze, and draw conclusions; and to express ideas and opinions. Adults who pass the five tests receive a GED certificate.

Individuals should check with the institution or workplace to confirm if the GED certificate qualifies for entrance to a college or university or meets an employer's education requirements.

Barry Hanrahan, Assistant Instructor

Program Description:
Adult upgrading: GED, EAL, and basic Computer. Volunteer tutors teach one-on-one students.

Family Literacy Program Description:
READ TO ME is open to any preschool child and their parent or other caregiver. This theme-based program promotes the fact that "A parent is a child's first and most important teacher." Each half-day session includes a Circle Time, an Adult Group Time, a snack, and a craft. A large take-home library and incentives provide encouragement to families to establish reading as a valued activity within the home.

There are two 8-week programs, offered Tuesday and Thursday mornings, at McIsaac School-École McIsaac in Flin Flon. There is no cost for participants, and transportation can be provided. A third session will occur if enrolment is sufficient.

Program Description:

The International Centre of Winnipeg offers a comprehensive range of services for immigrants, including Adult Education, Career Mentorship, Employment, Language Bank (interpretation, translation and notary services), Nutrition, Settlement, Volunteer Services, a Youth program and Computer Lending Library.

Adult Education Services supports adult immigrant learners through all stages of their educational process. A detailed assessment is first conducted with each client to identify needs for second language testing or training, adult literacy or secondary classes, computer, trades or vocation training and preparation for college or university entrance. Clients who have professional credentials from their country of origin are often assisted with certification issues. The unique needs and goals of each client are addressed by an individualized learning plan that is developed in conjunction with the Adult Education Officer. The process also can involve:

- Referring clients to an appropriate Adult Education Centres and Vocational Schools.
- Advising clients about how to develop computer and academic skills;
- Career testing, exploration and counselling;
- Assisting with college and university admissions and registrations;
- Advocating with educational or professional organizations, and
- Identifying sources of funding for education and completing the necessary application materials.

The International Centre also delivers the TapIn program, which helps immigrant learners' access surplus seats at a reduced cost in a variety of continuing education programs in Winnipeg. The minimum benchmark level required is 6.

Wheelchair accessible.

"We have the right to have opportunities to learn and be as independent as possible. We have the responsibility to tell people about our dreams and goals."
- Manitoba Developmental Centre Resident Bill of Rights and Responsibilities

Program Description:
The Specialty Care Literacy Program provides a positive atmosphere for adults with a developmental disability to develop and enhance their literacy skills. We offer small group and individualized classes, which are tailored to the individuals needs. The focus is on emergent literacy, functional literacy, and special requests for learning made by the learners.

Increased literacy has the potential to build self-esteem, confidence and competence when engaging in activities of daily living. Literacy is a means through which learners can better understand and interact with the world around them. Furthermore, literacy skills empower learners to be independent and motivate a desire to learn and achieve their goals.

Program Description:
The Portage Learning and Literacy Centre provides adult-focused programs from basic literacy and numeracy all the way to Grade 12. It also provides Family Literacy, employment programs and English as an Additional Language services, and Immigrant settlement services.

The Centre runs all year. Applicants contact the Centre in person, or by phone, fax or e-mail. We then arrange an appointment at the Centre to explore educational history, academic levels and to discuss goals. A program of study, schedules and a start date are then arranged. A timetable is available at www.learningcentre.net. Programs can be full-time or part-time depending on a learner's other commitments and sponsorship arrangements. All learners are required to make regular progress. Programs can be delivered in small group settings, or individually. The Centre's Family Literacy and (English as an additional language programs) take place off-site. The Centre is able to assist learners with transportation and other supports on a case-by-case basis. A certified onsite daycare is available. All Centre services are available without cost to the client.

Adult Literacy: PLLC offers community-based adult literacy programming. The program focuses on upgrading/developing skills in reading, writing and numeracy. The program offers support for GED readiness and EAL instruction.

Family Literacy: A family literacy program is offered on Tuesdays and Wednesdays for the months of Sept and October and April and May. The morning and afternoon sessions are two hours in length and include a variety of poems, fingerplays, songs, stories, games and crafts centred around the theme of the day. The program is open for 3-5 year olds and their caregivers. The program is set up to help the parent prepare the child for Kindergarten, and at the same time model ways to show that learning is fun and a lifelong process.

Program Description:
The Regional Alternative Education Centre (RAEC) provides educational opportunities for adult and teenage learners through individualized programs in an open classroom. The Centre is a satellite classroom of W. C. Miller Collegiate for teenage students, an adult learning environment for adults wanting high school credits, and is the Altona site for Campus Manitoba.

Courses include Grades 9 to 12 core academic courses, business-orientated credits such as computer, keyboarding, and accounting and optional credits such as family studies, psychology, and the civic service credits. Courses are individualized to meet curricular outcomes and learners' needs.

Individualized learner programs mean that intake is continuous throughout the year. Learning is self-paced, supported by teachers and educational assistants who set completion goals with students. Different learning styles are accommodated through the varied pace, choices of learning activities, and diverse assessments. Practical assignments are built into courses wherever possible.

All Courses use technology, so base line computer skill training is available and embedded in the learning at this ALC. RAEC has established partnerships with local businesses to support learners, promote the adult learning centre, and offer upgrading to meet work requirements.
